The Pigeon Comes to My Home

南京市下关区第二实验小学五(1)班 黄子涵

One morning, my grandma carried a bag when she came home. I opened the bag and it was a pigeon whose left wing was wounded. My grandma said, she found the pigeon in the grass on the mountain and then my father carefully held it from the bag. I stopped my works at once and watched the pigeon cautiously.

The pigeon has a small head, with two ruby eyes at two sides of the head. It is gray and its feathers draw the black stripes to show elegance and grandness. It has two green rings on its feet and the only fly in the ointment is the wounded left wing, which is still bleeding. My father said we can inquire the pigeon's address from the number on the rings and surprisingly it flies from Inner Mongolia. Just because of this, it should be our "Guest". It is absolutely impossible to kill the "Guest" and stew it, which my grandma thought initially. How to treat the "Guest"? Now its wing has been injured and it will remain in home. After the wound has been healed, it will fly away. Thus the pigeon becomes one "Member" of my family.

In the early days when the pigeon came to my home, it always hid under the computer desk because it was frightened too much. Several days later, the pigeon didn't hide under the desk but walked on the terrace if there was no one around. Sometimes it flapped the wings hard and wanted to fly. However, its wings were not recovered and it flew more difficultly. After a few days, it finally flew a little way staggeringly but flying to Inner Mongolia was unlikely. About one month later, it flew normally at last.

When the pigeon flew among us, my father proposed to let it out. We always prepared but finally gave up because we were unwilling to let it out. The pigeon lived with us for a while again and it walked in the living room every day as if there was no one else present. It sometimes stopped on the bonsai and sometimes stood on the back of the cane chair when it was happy.

Nevertheless, there is not always the banquet feast. The pigeon's home is destined to be far away and we decided to let it out although we were attached to it very much. It is finally time to let the pigeon out, I held it in both hands gingerly and put it on the windowsill. It hesitated a little and fluttered the wings before I thought it, and it was out of my sight in the blink of the eyes.

The pigeon chooses the distant place and we choose love.

一件难忘的事

南师附中江宁分校五(1)班 沈熠

漫步在回忆的沙滩上,每一个贝壳都是个美好的回忆。哪一个最美呢?哦,我找到了,是这个……

那时我上二年级,学校举办了我入学以来第一次运动会。同学们激动不已,纷纷踊跃报名,我也不例外。

运动会开始了。听着赛场上激动人心的进行曲,看着运动员们矫健的身姿在赛场上来回穿梭,谁心里都痒痒的。唉,可惜,我要到第二天才比赛……

终于到我比赛的那一天了!我的“任务”是800米长跑。我站在起跑线上时反倒有点害怕了。奇怪,我怕什么?大家不都和我一样吗?一声枪响,把我从焦虑中拉回现实,我赶紧向前跑。我使出吃奶的劲儿,奋力向前跑去。此时,我心中只有一个字,那就是“冲!”“冲!”“冲!”我继续猛冲,很快就把4个选手远远地甩在后面,现在我的前面只剩下我的劲敌×××了。他仅仅在我前面几米,这可是800米比赛啊,即使追上1米也十分困难。我很快体力不支,快到终点时,两条腿像灌满

了铅。这时,我的耳边响起了老师的鼓励声,响起了拉拉队的加油声,响起了同学们的呐喊声。顿时,一股力量在我的身体里面涌动,我咬紧牙关,拼命地向前跑!向前跑!向前跑……

啊,我光荣地站在了领奖台的最高处。金牌在我的胸前闪闪发光,我兴奋极了,不仅是因为我夺得了第一名,为班级争了光,还因为我懂得了一个道理:坚持就是胜利。

这次运动会,我真是受益匪浅啊! 点评:古人云,一篇好文章应该具有“凤头、猪肚、豹尾”的特点,这篇考场作文恰恰具有这样的特点。开头引人入胜,中间详实具体,结尾简短有力,更有小作者心理活动的描写,而且还注意了点面结合,值得一读。

A LOVE STORY (节选)

南京外国语学校高二(7)班 周欣童

I was luckily born into a loving family and thus boast all the love one can get in this world. However, this might be the reason, in most children's cases, why they take love for granted and stop to see it, feel it and give it. I was just one of these ungrateful children until one day, a boy's smile stroke me and made me learn why love was the most beautiful thing in the world and deserved all the respect and admiration.

One of my childhood friends was hospitalized for a broken leg and was definite bored to death staying in bed all day long. It was summer vacation so I went to see him from time to time. In the ward there was another boy, a very skinny boy, so skinny that his small body did not match his teenage face. Curiously he always had his quilt pulled up to his waist so I never saw his legs. But his problem seemed to be his left arm because the forearm was well plastered. My friend told me the chap was a kind of odd. Every morning he read newspapers loudly. Besides, he never stepped out of the bed even though he had a broken arm not a broken leg. I was very curious about the reading part so I came to the hospital earlier the next day, and he was reading a newspaper. I stole a glimpse of the date in the paper—it was half a year old! People didn't read old newspapers if they could get the latest but he didn't seem to care what he read. He articulated every word though not without efforts. His mother sat beside him and listened. Suddenly the young baby boy in the neighboring bed burst into a cry for some reason—the poor baby had fallen off the bed and broke his little leg. The skinny boy put down his newspaper and turned to him, making funny faces and baby talking. He seemed to have a knack for making babies happy and the little one soon stopped crying and laughed. The baby's mother looked gratefully at him. When the rumpus was settled, he turned back to his newspaper reading.

Love is not necessarily a cliché that is talked in Japanese and Korean TV sitcoms, or sung by pop singers. It can be materialized in our everyday life if we try. It takes much less efforts than the ALS boy to give our parents a hug, give our friends more tolerance and give everyone a smile. People will feel our love and take the bless, which in return will give us a sharper sense for love to see it, hear it, feel it and pass it. Then the world will be a better place.

我最爱吃的水果

南京财经大学附属小学四(3)班 王楚楚

我最爱吃苹果啦!苹果种类繁多:有黄里透红的红富士、有紫红的蛇果、有翠绿的青果。苹果是我国四大水果之一。

有一天,我放学回家,发现我的写字桌上有一只又红又大的苹果,我连忙拿起苹果捧在手里仔细观察起来:乳黄色里透着粉红,圆润光滑,像涂了一层蜡,光亮鲜艳。圆圆的苹果两端是凹进去的,所以能平稳地站在桌子上。我用鼻子凑上去去闻一闻香甜香甜的,馋得人直流口水。我让妈妈帮我削皮,只见淡黄色的果肉露了出来,苹果的香味更加浓郁了,我迫不及待地咬了一口,“咯嘣。”好脆哦!那甜甜的汁水吃在嘴里,甜到心里。

苹果是植物类水果,多次开花结果,含有丰富的营养成分,如:锌,能增强人们的记忆力。钾具有降压功效,对老年人很有帮助,人们常说:“一天一个苹果,医生远离我。”可见苹果对于疾病有食疗、辅料治疗的功能。

我喜爱吃苹果! 点评:小作者观察仔细,描写细致,从苹果的外形到颜色以及营养叙述得十分具体,使人一目了然。
